OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, THURSDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 27, 1902

NO. 50

LEADERS OF MANY NATIONS LISTEN TO JOHN HAY'S TRIBUTE TO M'KINLEY.

Prince Henry Occupies a Seat of Honor.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—At noon today in the Hall of Representatives, in the presence of President Roosevelt, Prince Henry of Prussia brother of the German Emperor, the members of the Cabinet, the Justices of the Supreme Court, the General of the Army and officers of the army and navy who have received the thanks of Congress; the Ambassadors and other diplomatic representatives of foreign countries, the Senators and Representatives in Congress and a large number of distinguished guests, the Hon. John Hay, McKinley's Premier, pronounced a eulogy upon his dead chief.

MARTYRED PRESIDENTS.

Four times before, national memorial services for Presidents who have died in office have been held in this Hall, two of them—like this—in commemoration of Chief Magistrates, who have fallen by the hand of assassins. By a strange coincidence, today was the twentieth anniversary of that on which the peerless Blaine in the same hall delivered his eulogy upon the martyred Garfield, and stranger still, the subject of today's memorial services was the chairman of the committee that had charge of the arrangements on that occasion.

MCKINLEY'S TRIUMPH.

Only one year ago, less five days, at the head of an imposing civic and military procession, McKinley passed triumphantly along Pennsylvania avenue for his second inaugural. Six months later the tragedy occurred at Buffalo, and another but different sort of procession, tenderly bore his body through the streets to the rotunda of the Capitol where the brief funeral oration was delivered over his coffin and the tributes of the nations of the earth about his bier bespoke the universal sorrow. Today, once more, with uncovered head, the Nation paid its last tribute of respect and publicly expressed its loving grief.

CAVALRY FOR PRINCE.

Again, the broad avenue was filled with vast crowds as they were a year ago. The streets were a sea of glinting bayonets and waving plumes and the air was filled with the music of hundred-toned resplendent bands. Today all was changed. No martial music lightened the air. The only music that was heard was the music of the heart. The only procession was the procession of grief. The only escorting Prince Henry and his party to the Capitol and carriages here and there conveying officers in uniform or dignitaries in court costume to the place where the eulogy was to be delivered, was the extent of the outward spectacle.

MIND AND HEART.

For the people, the event was one for the mind and heart, rather than for the eye and ear. But notwithstanding the fact proclaimed in advance that admission to the Hall of Representatives and even to the Capitol itself was to be restricted to those holding cards, the people congregated in numbers that surpassed about the great marble pile on the hill. While the ticket holders besieged the great bronze doors, to the entrance of the rotunda and overflowed the portico and steps leading to it, the crowds were kept back by lines of blue-coated police walked on the three sides of the broad plaza in front of the Capitol.

EMBLEM OF MOURNING.

The only emblem of mourning at the Capitol was the flags fluttering at half mast above the wings and on the great arching dome. The procedure of the case of Garfield memorial exercises was followed closely. The hall was without decoration of any character. The red-coated Marine band, sixty strong was stationed on the corridor, which separated the hall from the rear lobby of the House. At 10 o'clock the doors were opened and in five minutes the spacious galleries surrounding the chamber were dense with black rows of people. Even the aisles were filled, but the crowding and jamming which have marred so many State occasions, today was avoided, as the tickets issued were limited strictly to the number of seats provided. Only one was given to each Senator and Representative and the gathering in the galleries was a most distinguished one. The fact that few of the ladies wore bright gowns was especially noticeable. They had attired themselves in dark costumes, fitting the occasion, and their white faces were rendered distinct by the somberness of their apparel. Gradually the members of the House strolled in and took their places. The big cumbersome revolving chairs at the desks had been removed and smaller ones substituted, in order to increase the seating capacity on the floor.

LORD PAUNCEFOTE THERE.

In the area in front of the Speaker's rostrum heavy leather upholstered fauteuils had been placed for the accommodation of the President, Prince Henry, the Cabinet, the General of the Army and Justices of the Supreme Court. The first two rows on the Democratic side were reserved for the diplomatic corps, and the four rows immediately behind the Speaker's rostrum were reserved for the members of the Senate. The Governors of the States, Commissioners of DEATH SUMMONS J. A. FILLMORE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—Jerome A. Fillmore, former manager of the Southern Pacific Company and for thirty years connected with the Central and Southern Pacific railroads, died at 7 o'clock this morning of pneumonia. The news of his death has shocked the entire community, and is being widely mourned.

His decease will cause universal sorrow among the employees of the Southern Pacific system, for his uniform fairness and kindness toward them during his long years of authority in the operating department endeared him to their hearts. His retirement from the road caused profound regret, which is changed into grief by his death.

Mr. Fillmore had been in poor health for some months, but nobody apprehended that his condition was precarious. He was recently appointed general manager of the North Pacific Coast Railway, and was preparing to move his family over to San Rafael when he was taken down. Last Tuesday he was compelled to take to his bed on account of illness. Yesterday morning pneumonia developed, and this morning he died. He had the services of Drs. Gardner, Goodfellow, Mizner and Herzstein, among the assistants.

physicians in the State, but their efforts were unavailing. His old friends John W. Mackay and N. H. Foster of the California Northwestern visited him yesterday and tried to cheer him, but it was painfully apparent that he was beyond human aid.

Mr. Fillmore was 56 years old. He was born on a farm in New York State, but when a mere lad he entered the employ of the Erie Railroad. He worked himself up from the bottom and came to be recognized as one of the most capable railroad men in the United States. From the Erie he went to the Union Pacific, and in 1881 became assistant general superintendent of the Central Pacific under A. N. Towne. When Towne was made general manager, Fillmore succeeded him as general superintendent. After Towne's death Fillmore was made manager of all the lines west of Ogden and El Paso, a position he held up to a few months ago. Recently he was made general manager of the North Pacific, and had just planned a complete reorganization of the road.

Mr. Fillmore was a member of the Pacific Union Club, the most exclusive social organization in San Francisco. He leaves a widow and one daughter.

LIVERMORE PHYSICIAN IS NEARLY DROWNED.

LIVERMORE, Feb. 27.—Henry Meyers, a young man employed by Dr. Wm. Hammond, while driving home on Tuesday, essayed to drive through the Arroyo Valley creek instead of crossing over on the bridge at about the same spot.

The water, running like a mill race and very deep, caught the buggy and overturned it, throwing young Meyers out. He was nearly drowned. The horse was with great difficulty extricated from his harness, while the buggy floated down stream and struck against a tree.

The groceries and provisions in the buggy were washed away. It was an extremely lucky escape for all. A family of several persons were drowned a few years ago while trying to cross the same creek only a few miles from the scene of Tuesday's accident.

ALAMEDA WOMEN ARE WORRIED BY HUGGER.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 27.—Another story of a supposed "hugger" has been reported to the police, which has led a great many people to believe that there is a dangerous character at large in this city.

Tuesday night, Miss Brown, who resides at 178 Eucalyptus avenue, while walking along Grand avenue towards the station, was accosted by a colored man, who stood in the shade of a tree. The man asked the child, who is but 13 years old, if she knew where Anderson lived. When the negro spoke, the girl immediately started to run. The fellow followed her for some distance. When the girl reached La Plant's meat market, where her mother is employed as bookkeeper, she was in a very nervous condition from the fright she had received. P. N. Antonio, a grocer, immediately informed the police of the occurrence, and yesterday Detective Brown made an investigation. He discovered that the child had been badly frightened and that a negro had been seen in the neighborhood during the evening. He also found that a family by the name of Anderson resided in that vicinity.

The police are disposed to look upon the recent stories of a supposed "hugger" being abroad as fictitious, but despite their opinion on the matter, reports are circulating in every week of the strange actions of some man or men who have been stopping women on dark streets at late hours of the night. A sharp lookout will be kept by the department for all suspicious characters, and if a satisfactory explanation cannot be given in town, they will be promptly arrested for vagrancy.

NOYES IS VERY ILL.

EX-JUDGE OF ALASKA IS DENIED TO ALL
VISITORS.

REDLANDS, Feb. 27.—Judge Arthur B. Noyes, removed yesterday by the President from his position as Judge of the United States Circuit in the Second District of Alaska, is ill at Luna Linda Sanitarium, four miles from here.

Since his arrival at the sanitarium yesterday, his wife and a trained nurse have been in constant attendance upon him, and the physicians in charge refuse all visitors.

LITTLE HOPE FOR ROSSA.

CELEBRATED PENIAN AGI-TATOR IS DYING AT COLORADO SPRINGS.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Feb. 27.—O'Donovan Rossa, the celebrated Fenian agitator, is dying at St. Francis Hospital of blood poisoning. At noon an operation was performed, taking off the large toe of the left foot, and that member drained of pus. The only hope of Rossa lies in amputation of the entire foot and the patient is too weak to permit this. His friends have been notified and the doctors announce that there is little chance this afternoon for his recovery.

ANOTHER TRANS-CONTINENTAL RAILROAD FOR OAKLAND.

The statement is made by a prominent citizen this afternoon that within two years another transcontinental railroad will be running into Oakland. It is stated on good authority that the surveys have all been made and that the right of way has been laid out.

The party giving the information knows what has been done and is familiar with the plans for the future.

GIGANTIC SHIPBUILDING PLANT FOR OAKLAND.

It is stated on reliable authority that a project is on foot to establish an immense steel ship building plant at some point on Oakland Harbor, similar to the Cramps' yard at Chester or the Newport News plant in Virginia.

The matter is being kept very quiet because the plans have not been decided on. It is stated that negotiations are now in progress for a suitable site. A plant so extensive requires a large frontage on deep water and considerable territory on which to erect shops and other buildings.

According to the authority quoted this huge plant involves the investment of fully $25,000,000, and when completed, will give employment to an average of 5,000 hands.

A permanent working force of that number would add not less than 30,000 to the population of Oakland.

Mrs. Henry Green, the great New York capitalist, is said to be largely interested in the enterprise. From the meagre information at hand it is gleaned that the syndicate having the project in hand carefully canvassed various points on the Pacific Coast, and finally decided that Oakland Harbor offered the advantages superior to those found anywhere else.

It is kind-hearted, centrally located, and has admirable transportation facilities.

It is in the center of the most thickly populated district on the Pacific Coast, and but a few minutes from the greatest maritime city on the western shore of the continent.

The climatic conditions here are also extremely favorable to shipbuilding, for the extremes of heat and cold are lacking, while the breezing atmosphere permits the maximum of exertion with the minimum of fatigue.

Particulars in regard to project are exceedingly difficult to obtain, but enough has been learned to prove that it is in a fair way of consummation.

ACT OF AN INSANE MAN

KILLED A YOUNG WOMAN
AND THEN SHOT HIMSELF.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 27.—W. E. Reynard shot and killed Margaret Lambert at 805 Watson street shortly after 11 o'clock today and then killed himself.

He had been drinking hard for several days and it is supposed was temporarily insane. May Weyman, who, it is said, presided over the house, and a colored girl were the only persons in the house at the time of the tragedy. Margaret Lambert, the dead woman, was from London, England. William E. Reynard was a timekeeper at the Carnegie Steel Works. He was about 30 years of age and is survived by a wife and two children.

TURKEY WILL HAVE TO PAY UNCLE SAM

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 27.—It is understood that the United States will soon take steps to obtain a reimbursement of the sum of $75,000 paid to brigands as a ransom for Miss Ellen M. Stone and Madame Sedila, holding Turkey responsible inasmuch as the capture of the missionaries was effected on Turkish soil. This question of responsibility may have serious developments, since Turkey emphatically disclaims responsibility and lays the blame on Bulgaria.

NAMED BY PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The President today sent the following nominations to the Senate:

Clarence Wile, Collector of Customs, District of Puget Sound, Washington.

United States Marshals: Charles R. Hopkins, District of Washington; Myron H. McLeod, Territory of Arizona.

Postmasters—Arizona: James H. McClintock, Phoenix.

LARGE ORDER OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 27.—H. J. Small, superintendent of motive power and machinery of the Southern Pacific Company, returned from the East today and states that he has placed an order for seventy-five locomotives and has also ordered 1,000 box cars, 1,000 flat cars, 500 oil cars and 300 construction cars.

SCHOOLHOUSE IS BLOWN DOWN AT LIVERMORE.

LIVERMORE, Feb. 27.—The heavy wind of Tuesday did considerable damage in the country hereabouts. The Harris district school house received the force of the gale and was blown down and completely demolished at noon. Luckily the children and teachers were outside and escaped injury.

The large 70 foot derrick at the 15-3 Oil Company's well was stayed about the same time and blown over, breaking it into splinters. Windmills, light fences, outhouses and small barns too numerous to mention were scattered pell mell. So far there has been no report of a person being injured. The rainfall following the storm showed a precipitation of .42 inch, making the total for the storm 2.50, for the month 4.25 and for the season 11.25. The Arroyo Valley and Arroyo Madero creeks are carrying a considerable body of water, while the Los Positos are slowly rising.

NOT GUILTY OF THE CRIME OF LYNCHING.

ALTURAS JURORS RETURN A VERDICT IN FAVOR OF DEFENDANTS.

ALTURAS, Cal., Feb. 27.—The jury in the case of the people of the State of California vs. James W. Brown, accused of the murder of Martin Wilson, the 12-year-old boy who was lynched with Calvin Hall, James Hall, Frank Hall and Dan Yantis, at Lookout in May last, returned a verdict at an early hour this morning of "not guilty."

Two ballots were taken.

On the first one juror was for conviction and one voted blank.

The second was unanimous for acquittal.

WIRE TAPPERS TRY TO BEAT RACES.

BUTTE, Mont., Feb. 27.—By exposing a wire-tapping conspiracy Chas. W. Clark, son of United States Senator W. A. Clark, saved the Butte pool rooms last Monday about $25,000 or $30,000 on the Oakland races. The facts just came to light today in an effort to discover some parties to the alleged conspiracy in Utah. The reports were delayed by wire and the result telephoned to Butte about fifteen minutes in advance of the telegraphic reports.

Clark, it is said, received a "tip" from Dr. Burdette O'Connor of New York, at present in Butte, and prominent in mining litigation against the Amalgamated Company. To ascertain the truth of the "tip" and the extent of the alleged wire-tapping Clark placed several thousand dollars on the result of one race. Several men in the alleged conspiracy also put up large sums and they stood to break the pool rooms, but for the fact that Clark, after satisfying himself that the job was being carried out successfully, exposed the plot and pulled down his money.

"I like to make easy money, but I am not that kind of a sport," said the young man. He had stood to win about $10,000. No pools were paid on the race and the money of the alleged wire-tappers is being held by the pool room man.

A HEAVY MORTGAGE.

George Sterling of the Realty Syndicate has given a mortgage of $30,000 to W. R. S. Poye on property situated in the University Homestead Tract No. 2, in Berkeley.

FUNERAL OF E. L. COLNON

REMAINS OF THE EDITOR
ARRIVE AT OLD HOME
IN STOCKTON.

STOCKTON, Cal., Feb. 27.—The body of E. L. Colnon, one of the proprietors of the Stockton Mail, who ended his life in Los Angeles Monday night while suffering with an incurable disease, arrived from Los Angeles this morning on the same train with Mrs. Colnon.

The casket was met at the passenger station by the Elks and taken to their hall in the Mail building, where the body will remain in state until 2 o'clock this afternoon, the hour set for the funeral. The funeral will be conducted by the Elks, of which lodge deceased was a member. At the request of the deceased, William Cullen Bryant's "Thanatopsis" will be read over him. Orin S. Henderson will be the reader. The burial ritual of the lodge will be read by Rev. W. C. Evans, the lodge chaplain, and the body will be placed in a vault in Rural Cemetery.

WANT PRINCE IN CANADA.

HENRY WILL NOT BE ABLE TO ACCEPT THE INVITATION.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Prince Henry has been invited to visit Canada, where he would be the guest of the Dominion government. While the courtesy of the invitation is fully appreciated by German officials, yet it has been found impossible to accept the invitation, as every hour of the Prince's time up to the moment of his sailing for Germany already has been fixed. He will, however, be on British soil when he makes the visit to Niagara Falls and crosses to the Canadian side. At that time the Prince will be accompanied by the Governor General of Canada who will be present to extend the good will of the British authorities.

NO DEPOSITIONS WERE TAKEN THIS MORNING.

The taking of depositions in the case of D. E. Collins vs. the Enquirer Publishing Company, before Court Commissioner Babcock, was again continued today until tomorrow.

It is not likely that anything will be done in the premises until March 2, the time set for the taking of the deposition of Dr. George C. Parlee.

MASTER MARINER IS CALLED BY DEATH.

Loren Lepsersen, a master mariner, aged 55 years, died last night at his residence, 200 Forty-first street. He leaves a wife and several children.

The remains will be forwarded to Point Arena for burial.

Mrs. Sarepta J. Colby was granted a divorce today from Charles H. Colby for failure to provide. The defendant is a resident of Denver, Colorado.

ARTHUR W. JEE IS SUMMONED BY DEATH

One of the heaviest bonds ever required of an administrator, in a long time, in this county, was given today in the Superior Court, when Mary T. McLaughlin gave security in the sum of $50,000 as special administratrix of the estate of Arthur W. Jee, who died today at 2 o'clock A. M., after an illness extending over a number of weeks.

The deceased was in his 50th year, and for a lengthy period, has been an invalid, being continually under the control of a guardian, although he has never been in such a condition as to have become a ward of the State. He was possessed of means which he had acquired in the successful conduct of the salt business, for many years, in partnership with a man named Barton. His estate at times, has been rated as worth from $35,000 to $50,000. At the present time at a low valuation, it is supposed to be worth about $25,000. It consists of personal property, a part of which is the residence in which he died at 532 Alhambra street, which is worth about $5,000; $15,000 in stocks and some money in bank. Jee was possessed of but little real estate. Nine years ago, when he was 71 years of age, his mind failed and Judge Catlin of Sacramento, an old personal friend, was appointed guardian. The Judge held the position until 1900, when he died. Mary T. McLaughlin was appointed to succeed Judge Catlin as guardian and held the position until this morning she became also special administratrix of the estate of the deceased.

Jee was a native of England. He came to California many years ago. His wife died about seven years ago and was buried in this city. No children were born to the couple.

No announcement has as yet been made as to the time at which the funeral will take place. Mary T. McLaughlin has been empowered to make all necessary arrangements for the interment.

Mary T. McLaughlin in her petition to the court says that Jee left a will in which R. H. Howard is named as executor. It is stated that the will was made after Jee was incompetent.

There never was a thought of making a charge for keeping boxes in our vaults in the open banking room on the floor level. But safer and more modern methods appealed to us; and the most magnificent safe deposit vaults ever built by the hand of man were installed in fire-proof rooms—the only insurance of absolute safety. These rooms are separate and exclusive of the banking rooms, elegantly finished with every convenience, the use of which is offered with a superior steel safe at $4 a year.

SPORTING NEWS.

By J. W. LANGFORD.

THE TURF.

The complete helplessness of a starter handling the barrier under the present system of dispatching horses was never better illustrated than yesterday at Emeryville, and when the furore of the afternoon was over nobody on the grounds was more disgusted than Jake Holtman, who was held up to ridicule with his hands tied behind his back. Holtman had absolutely no chance whatever to help his starts yesterday, which was one of those afternoons that are bound to come under the present system of starting, and the wonder of the present season is that such work has not been seen more often during the sloppy and uncertain footing the track affords.

Gavia, a well backed second choice in the second race, was as straight as a string when the barrier sprung up, but the horse bolted with the sudden flutter of the webbing, and before jockey Jackson could straighten him the field was gone and pursuit hopeless. In the very next race Bullman by twisting and turning his mount succeeded in getting away on the jump with jerk, while the less active Medina on the first choice, Bard, was dreaming and another bad start was made.

The fourth race was started in front of the stand, the distance being one mile. Everybody heard the starter shout to the jockeys to "come on," but nobody could understand why the barrier did not rise simultaneously with the command. The crowd has heard Holtman order the jockeys to "come on" before, but they always saw the barrier rise after the boys with their mounts spring forward.

BARRIER FAILED TO WORK.
As luck would have it the barrier refused to work yesterday, and the horses burst through the barrier, carrying it along with him to the turn. Holtman could not shout "one back," because some of the boys might hear him and others might not. He knew in his own conscience that he had made a start according to the rules, and he knew what the crowd in the stand did not know—that the barrier failed to work—but all he could do was to stand there and bow his head in shame to the howls and groans from the public.

That should have been enough for one afternoon, but fate was on the trail of Starter Holtman, and for once he was to have it "rubbed in." In the fifth race, while Bullman was twisting and turning, Demblane in an effort to get away on the jump, he was caught during one of his "twists," just as he was caught at Tanforan on Greyfield and on another horse, a big favorite at the same track, that has slipped my memory, and left standing.

DORIAN ALIVE AGAIN.

Dorian, a fine big bay horse by Sir Mordred out of the once good mare Glendora, won the first race yesterday. Dorian is about eleven years old and has had a wonderful career on the turf. He once sold for $7,000, and has defeated all the best race horses of his day East and West. He has won the Kentucky Derby, the American Derby, and the Kentucky Derby, and now he is racing again in the colors of Green B. Morris. If Dorian could talk what a tale of the turf he could tell.

BASEBALL.

Manager Tote Lohman of the local team is beginning to gather his aggregation of diamond talent together for roll call preparatory for a run into the country, where practice for the opening of the season will commence. Lohman has about decided on Fresno as the best place for his men to work away the cobwebs of a winter's idleness. He hopes to have all his Eastern talent here in time to leave about the 12th of next month for the scene of practice, and once on the ground the boys will be put through all kinds of stunts.

Harry Cushman, a well known newspaper man, who for many years was connected with the Los Angeles Herald, has been selected to do the scoring across the bay this season. Cushman, who formerly attended to the scoring on both sides of the bay, will hereafter score only for Oakland. Cushman came here from Los Angeles to work on the Chronicle. He is now employed on the Chronicle and will cover the baseball for that paper through the coming season. He is a very entertaining writer and will be quite an addition to the local press brigade.

Every time Cal Ewing looks at his new pay roll for this season he lights a cigar, takes a fresh look at the pay roll, throws away the freshly lighted cigar and lights a new one. His actual cash pay roll has cost Ewing one full box of cigars that never received more than two puffs each. Between putting up a big guarantee for a week day afternoon game and that pay roll Ewing has had about all the practice he needs. He needs until the season is well under way and the financial results tested. It is up to Cal with fresh cigars and a little "oil from the can." He has done his share to date and deserves a splendid patronage from his townsmen.

BOXING.

The heavyweight contest between big Joe Kennedy and Jack Johnson at the Reliance Club next week promises to be a rattling go. Both these big fellows are remarkable fast for heavyweights and each knows how to handle himself in the ring. Johnson has made a great many friends during his stay in Oakland, and he will be a strong favorite with the Oakland sports. Charles Kohl, Johnson's manager, is already seeking a match with Denver Ed Marlin if Jack wins from Kennedy.

Kennedy sent word to the Reliance Club management that he will be in the fettle when he enters the ring with Johnson. He has been doing enough work for some weeks to keep in condition and for several days has been boxing with some good men. Joe has a very large following, especially among the union men of San Francisco, for whom he did great service during the recent strike. These friends will be on hand to root with a will for the San Francisco boxer.

As usual, the club will give two rattling preliminaries in which both of the lighter division will be the principals. Tim Regarty has assured the club management that he intends to keep his enagagement with Turner no matter whether he wins or loses with Britt.

BRITT-HEGARTY FIGHT.

Seats for the Britt-Hegarty fight which will take place before the Yacht Club in the Mechanics' Pavilion, San Francisco, tomorrow night were placed on sale at Harry Corbett's restaurant, and a large sale. There will surely be a large crowd from this side of the bay at the fight, owing to the popularity of Britt, who is training for the contest at Croft's Gardens in Alameda.

LEASED MECHANICS PAVILION.

It was reported at the race track yesterday that the bid from Zick Abraham and Jerry Driscoll for a lease of Mechanics' Pavilion for the purpose of boxing, had been accepted by the directors of that institution and that in the future Abraham and Driscoll will have control of the pavilion, which practically means a monopoly of the boxing game across the bay, as there is no other suitable place to hold boxing exhibitions.

Abraham and Driscoll are connected with the San Francisco Club and through that club had a small interest in the "Twentieth Century Club" when it pulled out the Jeffries-Rubin and other fights. When Promoter Kennedy, who was manager of the "Twentieth Century Club," conveyed to Abraham and Driscoll the plan to get control of something on their own account, and if it is true that they secured a lease of Mechanics' Pavilion for one year, as reported, it is not clear how they are to be kept out of the fighting game across the bay. They will have to be constant in their efforts to obtain a license from the Board of Supervisors, and they will require some interest beside the regular rental. Their bid for the Pavilion was $200 per month.

BOWLING.

All kinds of sports are enjoying prosperity at present in Oakland, but the city has room for more good, healthy, outdoor forms of amusement that can be made profitable, amusing and healthful to our citizens. Just now lovers of rowing are looking about for suitable waters to float their shells and working boats. The El Campo course, which was formerly used for rowing contests, and the cove at Tiburon are no longer available, and oarsmen turned to Oakland creek. The railroad has a water way there and that is the only one of the question, and now all eyes are turned to the water.

Why not Lake Merritt? It was good enough for a regatta last spring that ended in a most delightful and successful rowing. The efforts of the oarsmen were in full view, and a good view, too, of both shores, and when the day's rowing was completed everybody was near the headquarters of the different clubs and near home. It would be hard to find more suitable water for rowing than Lake Merritt, and impossible to get such accommodations so close to home and two large cities.

LAKE MERRITT BEST.

There is no question but what a splendid course with ten turns and a straightaway would be measured out on Lake Merritt that would appeal to the hearts of all true lovers of the sport and send the stock of the shell and sailing boat boom on a par with bowling and other amusement. It is the long trips to the seat of the rowing that destroy the interest and tire out friends of the sport. Bring the rowing regattas nearer home where people can see the rowing and enjoy them without fatiguing journeys, and you will find few amateur sports that can boast of a larger following.

GREEN APPLES WERE CAUSE OF DEATH.

H. Garrett Brown ate half a dozen apples three days ago and died yesterday after the most intense suffering. It is believed that the apples caused his death. Brown lived at 311 Eleventh street and was employed as a guard at the premises at 122 Thirtieth street, which were quarantined for smallpox. He lived in a tent outside the house. Monday he procured a sack of apples and ate several. He was immediately seized with cramps, and although Drs. Kitchings, corner of Eleventh and Broadway streets, did nothing for the unfortunate man.

"We had intended," said Dr. Kitchings, "to perform an operation on him, but at the end of three days he said he felt so well that all he needed was a little sleep. He had not closed his eyes for three days. A short time after that he was dead."

"It would be rather difficult to say just what was the cause of the man's death. I am inclined to think that he died of shock. It is not unusual that people die of eating fruit in large quantities. The stomach is shut down, the bowels are clogged and nothing could be done."

EXTRAORDINARY MERIT.

Of a New Catarrh Cure.
Physicians are slow to take up new and untried remedies, until their value has been established by actual experiment, and they are naturally skeptical of the many new preparations constantly appearing and for which extravagant claims are made.

The most liberal and enlightened physicians are always ready, however, to make a fair trial of any new specific and get at its true medical value.

CLOSING DOWN A BIG MORTGAGE.

Suit to Foreclose on Two Thousand Acres is Being Heard.

One of the biggest cases in foreclosure ever brought in this county is now on trial in the Superior Court before Judge Greene. It seeks to secure the forfeiture of nearly 2,300 acres of land in Contra Costa and Alameda counties, a mortgage on which was given to secure a note for $50,000, which was given in San Francisco, April 25, 1895, by Frank Garcia. The plaintiffs are Thomas H. B. Varney, the California Title Insurance and Trust Company and John Taylor, as trustees under deed of the late Thomas Varney. Besides Garcia, the other defendants are F. W. Bilger and H. Woods. The note was to bear interest at the rate of 9 per cent per annum, payable semi-annually. Default took place some time ago and there is now sought to be recovered the full face value of the note with interest. Garcia stipulated that he was to keep houses on the property insured to the extent of $3,000, but the agreement has not been complied with. The land covered by the mortgage comprises 2,300 acres in Contra Costa county and about 100 choice fruit and farm acres in Mt. Eden and Hayward.

Several cross-complaints were filed in the suit by Frank Bilger. This was based upon the fact of his having been a creditor of the late Thomas Varney in Hayward. This morning attorney Harding, who appears for the plaintiffs, sought to have this cross-complaint ruled out because it contained no facts save those alleged in the attempt to foreclose on the lien. He sought to have the late deed because more than two years had elapsed since its filing.

Judge Greene denied the point, so the case went to trial.

CARROLL HELD TO ANSWER.

Police Judge Smith has held Edward Carroll to answer before the Superior Court on a charge of burglary. He filed his bonds at $2,000. Carroll stole a valuable full of purses from the livery stable of Gates & Vogt.

Millinery Change.

Miss C. F. Klein is now sole proprietor of the millinery store at 1165 Washington street, having purchased the interest of Miss R. A. Gallagher. Miss Klein promises some rare novelties in headwear for Easter, which the ladies of Oakland and vicinity will undoubtedly be pleased to hear.

Mandolin and Guitar Lessons.

Prof. S. C. Baldwin, who is extensively and favorably known as a teacher in the instruments named above, is now located at 1053 Washington street, corner of Eleventh and Broadway. Mr. Baldwin furnishes music for socials, banquets, etc., and those desiring to learn the instruments he teaches will find his rates reasonable as well as being taught by a competent instructor.

PRINCE HENRY AND THE NEWS-PAPERS.

Prince Henry's visit seems to be inflicting much hardship on the German newspapers, judging from the complaints we hear wafted across the Atlantic from the Fatherland. It is incumbent upon every German newspaper of any importance to publish the cable accounts of the Prince's doings in this country. Now cable tolls are heavy, and German newspapers are not the highly organized institutions that they are in America. They are hampered by many restrictions which tend to make the publishing business unprofitable. The law of libel is excessively strict, and trifling criticisms of the policy, utterances or conduct of the Emperor get the editors fined or imprisoned for less than a year. Yet a virtual command has gone forth for all German newspapers to tell the story of Prince Henry's progress in the United States. Journals that never before received special telegrams from the United States are now publishing them and grumbling over the tolls. One editor remarked that the entire German press would be without dividends this year and expressed the hope that nothing else of equal interest would happen on the other side of the Atlantic for five years to come.

This looks as though the German editors were paying high for American friendship. This calls to mind the fact that the greatest and most profitable newspaper printed in the German language is published in New York. There are newspapers in Germany having a larger circulation, whose utterances have an international significance, but not one of them is so complete a newspaper as the Staats Zeitung or makes so much money. The main reason for this is that the transmitters on the press in Germany prevent the development of a newspaper on the broad lines possible in America. A second potent reason is that New York is one of the greatest German cities in the world. It is the largest entrepot for German shipping outside the German Empire. The Staats Zeitung reaches a German speaking constituency in New York, Brooklyn, Jersey City, Newark, Hoboken and Paterson, to whose tables the paper comes at breakfast time, exceeding a million. This population is only exceeded by that of two German speaking cities—Berlin and Vienna. And no paper in the Fatherland so dominates its local field as does the Staats Zeitung. It is one of the great and powerful journals of the United States, for it is edited with signal ability and holds the confidence of the German masses in the East to a high degree.

The immense success of the Staats Zeitung is in striking contrast to the complaints about telegraph tolls made by its prototypes across the Atlantic. It emphasizes the difference between free speech and a gagged press. It illustrates the radical difference between the political institutions of Republican America and Imperial Germany. Prince Henry, in one of his speeches said he had been told the press men of America were almost equal to the commanders of armies. This was remarkable coming from the representative of a system that has stifled the press and hampered it with restrictions devised to rob it of power and influence. Repression complementing freedom is an anomaly, but Prince Henry is here seeking our friendship for the German Empire—the German people have it without seeking—and he must needs give flattering commendation to the Fourth Estate of the Republic, although the imperial system he represents is at war with it as a dangerous element of society.

The efforts of the Pennsylvania and other great Eastern trunk lines to prevent George Gould from getting an outlet on the Atlantic furnish abundant evidence that Gould is trying to get a through line from ocean to ocean. The system he controls reaches from Pittsburg on the east to Salt Lake on the west. On the south it touches Galveston and New Orleans, and in the southwest ends at El Paso. It is morally certain that Gould will not be content to be shut out from either the Atlantic or the Pacific ocean. It is evident that he is now trying to get control of the Western Maryland, which would let him into Washington and to tide water at Baltimore. It is generally evident that the other trunk roads are doing all they can to prevent the consummation of the project. While this struggle is going on in the East there are many indications that Gould is preparing to get through connections to both San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Eighteen months ago Beaumont, Texas, was a sprawling sawmill town, a local market and shipping point for timber and rice. The discovery of oil in vast quantities has transformed it into a busy thriving city. Two railroad lines have since built into there, and over $3,000,000 has been expended in new buildings. Two new national banks have been organized and the bank clearings amount to between $400,000 and $500,000 weekly. All sorts of enterprises are springing up, and Beaumont has every prospect of being an important business center even should the phenomenal supply of oil decline or give out entirely. It is es-

THE COUNTY REGISTRATION.

Unless there is a complete registration there cannot be a full vote, and it is an axiom of popular government that a full vote is necessary for a thorough expression of public opinion. Therefore the efforts of County Clerk Jordan to obtain a complete registry of all the voters in the county should be appreciated, and should be met half way. He has so organized the work of registration that registry books are carried almost to the doors of the voters; they can register all during the month of March at their respective postoffices without taking the trouble to go to the Clerk's office in person.

In every town in the county registration is proceeding, and the most public notice has been given when the deputies will be at each place, and of the date when registration expires. Under these circumstances if any man fails to register he can only blame himself. The County Clerk has gone far beyond what the law requires in registering voters, and at much inconvenience and some expense to himself has extended every facility to the voters to register early without putting themselves to inconvenience.

Voters should take advantage of the facilities offered. They will save the County Clerk and themselves future trouble by availing themselves of the exceptional opportunity presented.

There is another side of the matter apart from consulting personal convenience, and that is the duty the voters owe the public. There is a moral obligation resting upon them to register and vote. Further than that, it should be incumbent upon every man to aid in having an honest ballot, as well as a full poll. By registering early ample opportunity will be given to scan the poll lists and purge them of fictitious names and to strike therefrom any persons who have been improperly registered. When this is properly considered it will be seen that the County Clerk is not only extending a personal accommodation to the individual voters but he is making the detection of fraud easy. It is to be hoped that the citizens of Alameda county will promptly respond to the facilities extended them and register at once. A full vote at the next election is particularly desirable, for there are State and national questions calling for settlement, and the people should express themselves thereon.

AMUSEMENTS.

That fascinating and inspiring romance "The Prisoner of Zenda" is one of the early attractions coming here. This play has attracted much attention and drawn larger audiences than any other which has held the boards during the last decade, and it is in compliance with popular request that managers who played the attraction last season that it has been decided to present it on tour for the coming year. The success of its success lies in the fact that while it is modern and up to date, the action is full of romance and picturesque. We find a monarch nineteenth century English gentleman imbued with all the spirit and dash of a hero of the middle ages, and we are held spellbound by the thrill of intrigue and plot and counterplot, which would have done credit to the pen of Dumas when he depicts the stirring events transpiring in the reign of a Medici or a Valois. The company is comprised of exceptional merit and the scenery and costumes magnificent and brand new. The play will be produced at the Macdonough Theatre Friday night. "Rupert of Hentzau" will be the play Saturday evening.

"WAY DOWN EAST." "Way Down East" is truly remarkable. Produced in New York by William H. Brady without any great advance here, it has been a great success, and for seven months occupied the stage.

of the Manhattan Theatre, afterwards was transferred to the Academy of Music. It is a play of great heart interest with homely types of rural New Englanders as its characters, presenting every day happenings of that vicinity that one would be likely to encounter. Lottie Blair Parker is the author of it; but the skillful actor and playwright, Mr. Joseph E. Grismer, elaborated and produced it. It will be presented at the Macdonough theatre the week of March 31.

DEWEY THEATRE. Another delighted audience at the Dewey last night cheered the excellent performance of the Stevens Stock Company to the echo in the side-splitting play, "Where is Cobb?" A number of the scenes are unapproachably funny and all of them are worked up to a degree of effectiveness which is a tribute to the versatility of the rural New Englanders at this house. The play will be repeated every night this week.

At Peck's Broadway Theatre, the attendance is increasing weekly, at the four performances given daily. Two of these take place in the afternoon and two in the evening. There is a flat rate of admission of only ten cents. The program is made up of moving pictures and varied character sketches, all of which are changed every week and are of a high order of merit.

ROSENWASSER'S VAUDEVILLE. It seems that the hoodoo is off at Rosenwasser's Vaudeville House, formerly "Dietz." The place was filled last night despite the weather. In presenting to the public a fine bill, no reason why the management should not receive public patronage. The illustrated songs and moving pictures are of the latest and are worth the price of admission.

Card Party at the Home of Mrs. Wynn—Unitarian Art Loan Exhibition is a Success—Personal and Social.

A pretty card party was given Friday at the home of Mrs. W. Wynn on Telegraph avenue, by her daughter, Miss Edith. During the evening hearts was played. The house was decorated in pink and green. Those present were: Miss Charlotte Baldwin, Miss Ethel M. Hartwick, Miss Marietta Haven, Miss Mabel Knoll, Miss Alice Knoll, Miss Carmen Sutton, Miss Jacqueline Moore, Miss Ver Vallin, Miss Ethel Robertson, Miss Edith Wynn; Messrs: L. Curtis, Fred Hutchinson, A. Ward, J. Liser, Frank L. Cameron, R. McCormick, R. B. Meads, Wm. Potter, C. Wynn and Stanley J. Thompson.

THE ART EXHIBITION. The Art Loan Exhibition at the First Unitarian Church last evening was a success. An excellent program was carried out and the large audience enjoyed the affair.

One of the pleasing incidents of the evening was the work of the members of the Reception Committee. The ladies of it were all attention to the guests and assisted them materially to enjoy the good things that were spread about the rooms for their benefit. The members of this committee were Mrs. Edward von Adelung, Miss E. A. Packard, Mrs. A. B. Nye, Mrs. E. H. Kluge, Mrs. B. Day Mills, Miss C. A. Whelan, Miss Ada Bates, Miss Gertrude Snow.

The pictures that are attracting the most attention are "The Storm King," by Griffin; "In Moraga Valley," by Keith; Latimer's beautiful painting, "Bursting Through the Fog," two well-known pictures by Yelland, "Sonoma Creek" and "The Lowlands," a "Sunset," by Griffin, and Latimer's "Come Day," "A Foggy Morning," by Sidney J. Yard of San Jose, excited much favorable comment, as did also two of Gable's paintings, "A Snow Cloud" and the "Storm." Other meritorious works are two portraits by Mary Curtis Richardson; "A Gray Day," by Cademasso; "Roaring River Falls," by Gremko; "Berkeley Haycocks," by Bertha Stinger Lee; "An Indian Head," by Prescott; "Chinatown," by Montgomery; by C. Chapel Judson; "A Deserted Rancho," by Gamble and flower study, "Daffodils and Violets," by Mrs. D. W. Gelwick of Oakland. Several other pieces from Impressionist school are shown by Louise Schwamm and Lucia K. Matthews.

An excellent display of miniature work is made by Oscar Kunath. A couple of miniatures by Leslie V. Gilson, who painted the portrait picture of Janice Meredith, are also to be seen.

The display of water colors is unusually good, noticeable among them being "In Chinese Quarters," by C. E. Nilson which excited so much comment at the recent exhibit in San Francisco, is shown. Laura Adams' display of portraits, among which is her well known "April Baby," is unusually fine.

In the dramatic exhibit are many exquisite pieces. Miss Emma Roberts, Mrs. Evelyn Porter, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. C. W. Farnham and Miss Augusta Klose are exhibitors. The hall is excellently lighted for the purposes of the exhibition. The round salon seat in the center of the room is surrounded by a large host of Star King, the work of Lejeune, the sculptor. "Berkeley," by Annie Briggs, and "Chinatown" glimpses, by Currier, Seawell and Mrs. Chapman. The collection of photographs shown by the Camera Club is alone worth going to see. "The Challenge," by Arnold Genthe.

AN ALAMEDA EVENT.

One of the pleasant events of last week in Alameda society was the party given Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Kline, 1323 St. Charles street. The members of the Kline Club were invited and the evening was spent at whist. The decorations were artistically arranged in the national color.

At midnight a banquet with an elaborate menu was served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Kline, Mr. and Mrs. B. Blair, Mr. and Mrs. A. Mook, Mr. and Mrs. E. Hirschfeldt, Dr. and Mrs. A. Sander, Mr. and Mrs. Simmons, Dr. and Mrs. S. P. Terry, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Wiese and William Hendelberg.

A FAREWELL PARTY.

Miss Elizabeth Howard was tendered a farewell party Saturday evening by Miss Grace Bliss of 3287 Briggs avenue, Alameda. She is to leave shortly to join her relatives in Honolulu.

Musical numbers and dancing were enjoyed and refreshments were served at 1117 Chestnut street at 8 o'clock.

Among those who attended were Miss Gertrude Scudler, Miss Elizabeth Howard, Miss Ethelyn Doe, Miss Mabel Shauer, Miss Hazel Deck, Miss Edith Yates, Miss Dorothy Holbrook, Miss Katherine Rogers, Miss Victor Hillman, Miss Grace Bliss, Messrs: King and Raymond Holbrook, Allison Doe, Herbert Webster, Arthur Bliss, Edmund Rogers, Sydney Shepard.

AN ALAMEDA WEDDING.

A pretty home wedding took place at 1117 Chestnut street at 8 o'clock last evening, when Miss Grace Edith Talbot became the bride of George Rollins Utterback.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Thomas Baldwin of the Baptist Church. Miss Talbot, who was unattended, was given in white silk, profusely trimmed with pearls. She carried a large, loosely arranged bouquet of orange blossoms, which were sent for the occasion from her home in Los Angeles.

After the wedding there was a reception at the residence of the bride and groom, where the ceremonies took place and where Mr. and Mrs. Utterback will be at home to their friends until March 5th. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Talbot of Los Angeles. Her engagement to Mr. Utterback, which was announced several weeks ago, was the result of a protracted visit which she paid to Mrs. S. A. Brooks of San Antonio avenue this winter.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

Rev. Dwight E. Potter, the pastor of the Union Street Presbyterian Church of this city, expects to go East about the first of April on a vacation and to study successful methods of church work.

Mr. Potter has been very successful in his work in Oakland and has been largely instrumental in building up the work of the church with which he is connected.

A son has been born to Mrs. Warren Olney Jr., the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. K. McLean, and the latter are now grandmothers. The little stranger came very near being a Washington's birthday baby for it was born on the following morning.

WILL VACCINATE THE SCHOOL CHILDREN.

The Board of Health, at a special meeting held for the purpose last evening, unanimously recommended to the Board of Education that all school children of the city be vaccinated, especially those who had not been vaccinated within the last five years.

Health Officer von Adelung, who called the meeting, stated that smallpox was prevalent throughout the State. "Soldiers are passing through the city at all times," said the doctor, "and there are a great many other sources from which it might be contracted. I would advise that we cause the vaccination of all the school children in the city as a preventative against an epidemic."

Dr. von Adelung said further that he had vaccinated 10 children at the Claws School and many of them were good looks. He thought it would be wise for the Board to publish some efficient explanation of vaccination.

"The objection to vaccination," he said, "is going to grow when we make it general, but if the people understand that the danger from it is practically nothing, we can conquer this objection. I would suggest that the recommendation go to the Board of Education that the children be vaccinated."

In regard to local cases of smallpox, the Health Officer was directed to proceed on his own judgment.

ROUND-TRIP HOME-SEEKERS' RATES.

To accommodate those who have never seen California and who may wish to look over the ground before finally deciding to move West, the Southern Pacific, through its Passenger Traffic Manager, Mr. E. O. McCormick, has applied to the Trans-Continental Passenger Association for permission to put in very low second-class round-trip rates to California similar to the "homesteaders' rates" which were made last year, and which brought thousands of settlers to the State. Tickets will be on sale at the low rates twice a month, first and third Tuesdays, during March, April and May. The Southern Pacific is deserving of much credit for this action, which cannot fail to be beneficial to California.

In order to facilitate the work of re-registration, attention is called to the which reads as follows:

Sec. 1097. No person's name must be entered by the Clerk, unless:

- 1. Upon the production and filing of a certified copy of the judgment of the Superior Court directing such entry to be made.
- 2. If a naturalized citizen, upon the production of his certificate of naturalization, which certificate must be issued ninety days prior to the succeeding election, or upon his affidavit that it is lost or out of his possession, which affidavit must state the place of his nativity and resided in the United States for five years, and in this State for one year next preceding the time of application, county at the next succeeding election; provided, however, if such naturalized citizen shall have been previously registered as a qualified elector in any of the counties or cities and counties of this State, his name must not be entered by the Clerk unless he produces a certificate of such registration, issued by the party authorized by law to issue such certificates, or other satisfactory prima facie evidence of his naturalization.

3. If born in a foreign country, upon his affidavit that he became a citizen of the age of twenty-one years, and that he is or would be an elector of the county at the next ensuing election.

4. In other cases, upon the affidavit of the party that he is or will be an elector of the county at the next succeeding election.

Further notice is hereby given that Affidavits of Registration must be sworn to before the County Clerk or his deputies.

owing to the provisions

The office of the County Clerk will be, until further notice, open for registration from Nine A. M. until Five P. M. each day.
